HEARING NOTICE

TO: Members of the Subcommittee on Energy

FROM: Bobby L. Rush, Chairman

SUBJECT: Subcommittee Hearing on “Securing our Energy Infrastructure: Legislation to Enhance Pipeline Reliability”

The Subcommittee on Energy of the Committee on Energy and Commerce will hold a hybrid hearing that includes both in-person and remote attendance on Wednesday, January 19, 2022, at 10:30 a.m. (EST). The hearing is entitled, “Securing our Energy Infrastructure: Legislation to Enhance Pipeline Reliability.” The hearing, initially scheduled for December 7, 2021, was previously postponed. Witnesses will be by invitation only.

This is a legislative hearing that will focus on the following attached bill:

- H.R. 6084, the “Energy Product Reliability Act” (Rep. Rush (D-IL) on 11/30/2021)

This hearing will take place in the John D. Dingell Room, 2123 of the Rayburn House Office Building, as well as remotely using Cisco Webex online video conferencing. Members will receive Webex participant access information by email before the hearing. No staff from member offices will be allowed in the Committee room. However, one staffer from each member’s office may join the hearing remotely as an attendee. Each designated staff attendee must register at the provided link by no later than Tuesday, January 18, 2022, at 12 p.m. (EST). The public may view this hearing via live webcast on the Committee’s website: <http://energycommerce.house.gov>.

For members planning to attend in person, the Committee notes that this hearing is being held during the COVID-19 pandemic, therefore the Committee will adhere to the greatest extent possible to the safety guidelines issued by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Attending Physician of the Capitol. Guidelines regarding the conduct of this hearing were previously distributed. In addition, the Attending Physician released updated guidance on January 3, 2022 recommending that committees “adopt a maximal telework posture.”

The bipartisan staff briefing for this hearing will be held using Microsoft Teams on Tuesday, January 18, 2022, at 2 p.m. (EST). The Democratic staff briefing will be held immediately following the bipartisan briefing. The Republican staff briefing will be announced separately. Information for these briefings will be sent out later this week.
